GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, N. J., April L. the rain storm of last might made the track very heavy at Guttenburg to-day, and consequently the fields were very much reduced in size by scratches. The weather cleared off beautifully, but the wind was a trifle fresh and cook. The crowds expressed universal astisfaction over the annon-cement that racing would be continued until May 14. They declared that Guttenburg with beiting was infinitely preferable to Elizabeth or Linden without.

It is understood that the stake races of the Eigzsbeth and Linden Association will be run on at Guttenburg. It is also said some of the big owners, such as J. A. & A. H. Morris and Schooner Georgia L. Drake Wrecked the Dwyers and others, will race their horses. The crowd at Guttenburg to-day was up to the usual average.

The first race on the cate found Basti Duke a not favorite. His party played him in the city t good odds. It was said there was a shrewd division, nowever, who argued that Basil Duke nid not give ellery nine pounds and a beat-g, and they alsyed Father Billy's filly.

A few planed Defendant, notwithstanding it has been asserted all along that he never could win in the mud. The others were at long odds. The tavorite never extended aimself and wasked home. Defendant was second and Extra taird. Glory's race was a very poor one.

and Extra third. Glory's race was a very poor one.

Frances S., with Taylor up, looked like a 'moral' in the second race, and of course she was made an overwhelming favorite despite the fact that she had never lancied heavy going much, and Xenophon, from his well known lising for mid, was a strong second cubice. Patti was played 1, 2, 2, and Nubian was also played.

The layorite was never in it, and she finished fourth, pulling up lame. Xenopoon won easily from the unfortunate Patti, who, though rosessing sheed, never seems able to win. Nubian was third.

The third race was a good betting affair. Lemon was the favorite, but Dixie, Chancellor, Jay Qu Ed and Chapman were all backed both to win and for the place positions.

May D., a 25 to 1 shet, curpused every one by jumping away and making a runaway race of it. Lamar was second and Chapman third.

The announcement that $1,500,000 gold had been taken for export to Europe by Saturday's steamships did not check the bullish feeling, as money here is so easy that a few millions of the yellow metal can easily be spared.

The shipments are also relied upon to have a wholesome effect upon the foreign markets.

Bill. and Mr. Fish, leading the teputical minority, made a hard blious ering figst to secure an adjournment and prevent the infroduction of the new Congressional Apportionment bill by the Committee on Enumeration. On motion of Le der McClelland, nowever, the season was indefinitely extended, and wholesome effect upon the foreign markets.

THE TURF.

Guttenburg's Pleasing Purchase of Extra Dates.

INVESTIGATIONS ON THE HILL

An Unknown Matched Against Fred Gebhard's Rosarium.

The most interesting piece of news developed in the turf world yesterday was the official announcement by the Hudson County Jockey Club that racing would be continued at the hill-top track until stay 14, the day before the New York season opens. This is undoubtedly pleasing news to the great majority of the race-going public.

A conference between the representatives of the three tracks resulted in the sale of the Linden and Elizabeth dates to the Guttenburg people. There is a strong probability that the stake races of the Elizabeth and Linden Clubs will also be decided at Guttenburg. The management of the latter track announces that, beginning next week, purses will aggregate $3,000 per day. This increase should bring some first-class animais to the track and the prospect for fine racing in very bright.

Two investigations were held by the Execu tive Committee at Guttenburg yesterday. One was in the case of Marty Bergen, the jockey who was set down for the balance of the year for impudence to the starter. The Committee ment, but with the starter's approval the sentence was commuted to April 10. The other investigation was held to inquire toold pieces of all sizes, from the half-sov. into charges made against Thomas F. Eagan, ereign piece with Her Majesty's head on it to manager of the betting ring, by a well-known turf reporter. The latter charged that Mr.
